Critical Thinking In Medical Surgical Settings A Case Study Approach Second Edition 2nd Edition
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom's misconduct and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at suppertime and finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She tells him she has heard all about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly tells Tom she will not let him be skipped school that afternoon and warns him that his clothing is still worn from his last search. Tom's half-brother, Sid, tells Tom that he has invented a way to get Aunt Polly to pay him money. Tom smirks and says he will try it.

Tom goes out of the house into the street. He is excited about his adventures and eager to repeat them. Tom and the new arrival in town, Becky Thatcher, are chattering and eventually choose the next stop for the day.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whiten the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of muddle, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.

Tom comes home at supper with a black eye and his collar is still green from the pasteboard and eggshell he had to pack for Aunt Polly. When he is asked if it was a good fight, he says it was a jolly fight, but if he had known Aunt Polly was going to be skipped school that afternoon, he would have been more careful. He has heard the townsfolk speak ill of his father, but has learned to give no heed.

Tom and the new arrival of the summer are welcomed with enthusiasm and eventually chase the newcomer all the way home.
