Picture Perfect Mowing Techniques For Lawns Landscapes And Sports
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects wistfully on Tom’s naughtiness and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper time. His mother has been talking to the school principal about Tom’s absence from school. Tom’s mother tells the principal that Tom has skipped school that afternoon but will be back on Monday. The principal is sympathetic and agrees.

Tom and his two new arrivals eat dinner in silence. Tom’s mother is angry with him for being absent from school, and Tom is embarrassed by his new friends. Tom’s mother tells him that he will be grounded for a week.

When Tom returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a kind of marble. Tom almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.

Tom comes home at suppertime and is immediately sent to bed without dinner because of his escapade. He has never been in trouble before, and now he is afraid of being expelled from school the next day. As he lies in bed, he imagines all the adventures he used to have when he was younger. He misses the carefree days when he could roam around without any responsibility.
